MAYA'S JOURNEY

Maya never imagined that her life would take such a dark turn. Once filled with dreams and hope, she found herself trapped in a dangerous cycle of domestic violence, and it wasn't just her own life at stake her daughter, Emma and their cat, Patch were depending on her to make the impossible decision to escape.

For months, Maya endured unimaginable trauma. Everyday she lived in fear, knowing that leaving could mean safety but also uncertainty. Finding shelter for her young daughter, herself and beloved cat was a bit of a challenge. Patch was more than a cat, he was a source of comfort for Maya and her daughter.

Maya learned about A Safe Place through a friend, but hesitated at first, wondering if there would be room for her daughter and herself, but also making sure that Patches was able to stay with them as the thought of leaving Patch behind was nonnegotiable.

When Maya finally reached out to A Safe Place, she was relieved to discover that there was no need to choose between safety and their beloved cat. Through the Purple Leash Project, Maya, her daughter, and Patch were welcomed into a safe, compassionate space where they could begin to heal together.

A Safe Place provided everything Maya needed to rebuild her life: housing, legal support and counseling, that allowed her to keep the three of them together which brought constant source of comfort and they were able to sleep peacefully for the first time in years. Because of the support of A Safe Place, Maya was able to create a new life for her and her daughter with Patch by their side, a gentle reminder of the love that held them together during their hardest times.

A Safe Place and its supporting organizations are indescribably paramount to teaching us all, no matter what age, that my mother's lesson was not true.
